DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to the Amendment filed July 8, 2002 which has been entered into the record of file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The Applicant is respectfully referred to the previous Office action for the details.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed July 8, 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The Applicant argues in his Remark section that the cited references do not teach the features as now claimed. The examiner respectfully disagrees with this argument since Dryer clearly teaches an animation system for specification of animated characters based on personality traits, wherein multiple traits may include a personality, i.e., grouping traits at page 33, left col., lines 19-36. Furthermore, the Applicant argues that "Dryer does not teach any methodology for weighting, combining, or otherwise implementing multiple personality traits that may have been present in an animated character." However, no where in the claims that the Applicant include these features.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 6 and 8 are allowed.

Art Unit: 2671

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
